Applicants' amendments to the claims are sufficient to overcome the rejections advanced in the last office action.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8, 10, 11, 14, 16-18 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over "The food of India" (India) in view of Roskam.

India discloses a process of making batter-coated vegetables. Here potato, eggplant or onion are sliced and then coated with a batter of chickpea flour. Then the battered food is fried. The claims appear to differ from India in the recitation of the washing of the food prior to coating it with batter. The concept of blanching potatoes is disclosed in Roskam in paragraph 004 and this blanching would have been an obvious washing treatment of the potatoes. It is appreciated that "controlling acrylamide production" is not mentioned but no unobvious or unexpected difference is seen between the process of India and process of the claims. It is also appreciated that the percent of chickpea flour is not mentioned but given the broad teachings of India; it would have been obvious to adjust the percent of chickpea flour in the batter according to individual preferences.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
